

Esperantic Studies Foundation (ESF) works to further the understanding and practice of linguistic justice in a multicultural world and aims to develop and support excellence in scholarship, education, and interlingual communication. Its priorities and values are shaped through engagement with researchers, educators and activists in many language-related fields, including the worldwide community of Esperanto speakers.

Priorities

- Facilitating scholarship and public discourse on Esperanto and interlingual communication
- Supporting the teaching and learning of Esperanto
- Building a global intellectual community of researchers interested in issues concerning Esperanto, interlinguistics, language policy and planning

Golden anniversary

ESF turns 50 ... and is ready for 50 more! ESF was officially established in 1968 and is proud to have achieved 50 years of uninterrupted work supporting education and research.

Research Grants Programme

ESF welcomes applications from scholars and graduate students for support grants in conducting and publishing research in such fields as language planning, interlinguistics, transnational language policy, linguistic justice, and planned language (including Esperanto).
